2018 ARTS INCLUSION PROGRAM

VSA Kentucky Teaching Artists work in schools to provide accessible arts in education projects across Kentucky. This program, in 21 sites, provides hands-on, inclusive arts residencies in all the arts disciplines that interface with National and Kentucky Academic Standards, serving students with and without disabilities.

Executive Director Delaire Rowe receives a sponsorship check from Kiwanis President David Doran. These funds will be used for Side by Side Bowling Green, as well as Festival of the Arts at SkyPAC. Thank you to the Kiwanis Club of Bowling Green for your support of VSA Kentucky programs to kids with disabilities throughout Bowling Green and Warren County!

2018 SIDE BY SIDE

Programs are happening in 11 communities statewide. Side by Side programs offers a series of studio art classes taught by a VSA Kentucky approved teaching artist. After completing the classes, young artists with disabilities are paired with a professional artist mentor from their community to create a collaborative work.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

VSA Kentucky welcomes Brent Brennenstuhl to our Board of Directors! Brent serves as a Magistrate Judge for the US District Court for the Western District of Kentucky. Brent grew up in Eastern Kentucky and attended the University of Kentucky, where he received his law degree. Brent is an active member of the Bowling Green Kiwanis Club and has served on the boards of several wonderful organizations in the area. Thank you, Brent, for your time and talent!
